

THE TOCQUEVILLE PROGRAM
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME
IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE
THE 2016-17 FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Tocqueville Fellowship was designed for Notre Dame undergraduates interested in discussing fundamental questions about politics, culture, business, markets, philosophy, and religion. Tocqueville Fellows receive special invitations to meet, network, and dine with guests and scholars visiting Notre Dame. Fellows also work closely with the Program's professors and staff to design and implement the Program's events, including the "Professors for Lunch" series.

Applications are due April 25, 2016

To apply for the Tocqueville Fellowship, send a letter (one-two pages) expressing your interest, including ideas for program events, speakers, and topics to:

Professor Vincent Phillip Muñoz,
Tocqueville Associate Professor of Political Science
217 O'Shaughnessy Hall, Notre Dame IN, 46556
Please also email your application letter to Jennifer Smith, jsmith70@nd.edu
