

THE TOCQUEVILLE PROGRAM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE

FALL 2018
FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

The Tocqueville Fellowship was designed for Notre Dame undergraduates interested in discussing fundamental questions about politics, culture, business, markets, philosophy, and religion. Tocqueville Fellows receive special invitations to meet, network, and dine with guests and scholars visiting Notre Dame. Fellows also work closely with the Program's professors and staff to design and implement the Program's events.

We seek undergraduates who are eager to participate in the Program's events and who are enthusiastic about sharing their unique perspectives, academic interests, and personal talents with the Program.

The Tocqueville Fellowship is open to all Notre Dame, St. Mary's College, and Holy Cross College undergraduates.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE MAY 15, 2018, FOR THE FALL 2018 SEMESTER.

To apply for the Tocqueville Fellowship, send a letter (one-two pages) expressing your interest, including ideas for program events, speakers, and topics to:

Professor Vincent Phillip Muñoz
Tocqueville Associate Professor of Political Science
2040 Nanovic Hall
Notre Dame IN, 46556

Please also email your application letter to Jennifer Smith, jsmith70@nd.edu

Tocqueville program for Inquiry into Religion and Public Life

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

College of Arts and Letters

tocqueville.nd.edu